Introduction

Background to this syllabus

- This syllabus is designed to accommodate students whose first language is other than English.
- In keeping with the remainder of the Speech Syllabus package, these examinations involve challenging activities, especially at the higher levels.
- Examiners understand that candidates presenting for these examinations will most likely have accents, and allowances will be made in this area. However, it is essential that candidates can be clearly understood.

Notes for Teachers

- All items are to be spoken in English.
- Talks and speeches should not be read or delivered as a recital.
- Headline notes may be used, but must be inconspicuous.
- This syllabus must be used in conjunction with the supporting document 'Speech Syllabi Background Information for Teachers' which contains essential information such as
 - Structure of the Speech Syllabi package
 - Grade set
 - Age of candidates
 - Guidelines for selecting appropriate selections at each examination level
 - Prepared versus Impromptu items
 - Memorisation requirements
 - Reading of books prior to practical examinations
 - Hard copy requirements
 - Suggested reference books.
